

HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM

Jobs in the Hospitality and Tourism field focus on management and operations of services such as hotels, restaurants, attractions, recreation events, etc.

Are you comfortable talking to groups of people?

Are you a great multitasker?

Do you have a lot of patience?

Can you work long hours?

Do you enjoy working with people?

CAREERS IN HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM

1. Lodging Manager
2. Barista
3. Travel Agent
4. Umpire, Referee, and Other Sport Official
5. Travel Guide
6. Dishwasher
7. Concierge
8. Baggage Porter and Bellhop
9. Janitor and Cleaner
10. Tour Guide

CAREER SNAPSHOTS

Chefs and Head Cooks

Direct and take part in preparing, seasoning, and cooking food.

Regional Salary - $40,200

Educational Level - High School Diploma

Daily Tasks

- Check the quality of food products.
- Ensure sanitation regulations are followed.
- Supervise cooks or other workers taking part in food preparation.

Required Skills

- Communication
- Team Work
- Initiative

Meeting, Convention, and Event Planners

Coordinate activities, staff, and clients to make arrangements for events or conventions.

Regional Salary - $48,900

Educational Level - Bachelor's Degree

Daily Tasks

- Discuss requirements and goals for events.
- Meet with sponsors and committees to plan events.
- Review bills for accuracy.

Required Skills

- Communication
- Organization
- Active Listening

Market Research Analysts and Marketing Specialists

Gather information to determine potential sales of a product or service, or plan a marketing or advertising campaign.

Regional Salary - $58,400

Educational Level - Bachelor's Degree

Daily Tasks

- Collect and analyze data regarding markets.
- Conduct research on customer demographics.
- Prepare reports of findings.

Required Skills

- Critical Thinking
- Reading Comprehension
- Active Listening

A proud partner of the americanjobcenter network

Visit www.wfswct.org/careered for more information!

SOURCE - JobsEQ and O*Net